

SAINT CLARET COLLEGE, ZIRO

Women's cell

Annual Report: 2017-18

Man and Women are the two tyres of the vehicle called society if one tyre burst the other will never reach its destination, no matter how near it may be.

Women's empowerment is one of the five pillars of Saint Claret College, Ziro, and the Women's cell of the college creates awareness of the issues concerning the women's in the society. The cell functions as a single entity as well as in collaboration with the other cells of the institute to cater' in all possible sphere concerning the women's in the society, to name the few, The Film club, Sexual harassment prevention cell, Health cell.

In the academic session 2017-18, various activities related to women's empowerment, women's emancipation and realization of women's rights were taken up and carried out in the College. The cell realizes that it takes not only the formalistic approach of education to cater the needs of the women's in the aspects of life but it also takes a holistic approach towards making the students better individuals and respectable citizens of the state and of the world as a whole. The cell also tries to inculcate an optimistic outlook of life in the students. This is done in accordance with the drafting of a plan of action for each academic year. The cell fostered on awareness, mentoring sessions, debates, extempore speech on various issues regarding and concerning the Women's of the world at large.

The women's cell of the college also commemorated the International Women's Day on the 14th of March, 2018; acknowledging and celebrating the contributions of those Women's who rose beyond the evils of gender discrimination to live in the hearts and minds of those others of their same kind. Contributing to the world a deep lesson that a women is not only, a mother, a sister, a wife or a friend and that their ids much more in her than the eyes of man wants and try to see. This initiative helped not only the female segments of the institution to be aware of their worth and hidden potentials but it also worked as an eye opener for their counterparts. All the initiatives were catered as a medium to let all the women's as well as males to be aware of Social, cultural, racial, gender and economical equality.

Furthermore, to celebrate the contribution and achievement of women in the contemporary era, the women's cell in collaboration with 'The Film Club' of the college sowed a joint venture towards the mass empowerment of the so long subjugated section of the society through the means of mass media with the screening of some of the movies regarding the rights and issues of women's and to name the few would be; 'Maatrabhoomi', 'Pad Man', 'Page 3', 'Water', 'The Stoning of Soraya' an award winning and worldwide acknowledged movie.
